MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FINANCES AND THE NATIONAL BANKING SYSTEM.

The Government of the United States owed, on the first day of the present month, an acknowledged debt of over twenty-six hundred and forty-three millions of dollars, less one hundred and thirty-three millions in its Treasury. The amount of unacknowledged debt, claimed of the Government in the Court of Claims and before Congress, we cannot even guess at; but it is unquestionably very large.

The interest on the acknowledged debt is very nearly one hundred and fifty millions per annum. On the unacknowledged debt no interest accrues, because the Government has always dishonestly refused, with now and then an exception, to pay interest on any claims against it.

The Pension list calls for over thirty millions per annum.

Thus, apart from the current expenses of carrying on the Government, and without paying any part of the principal of the public debt, the Government must pay one hundred and eighty millions per annum; and the necessary cost of carrying on the Government and the Federal taxes amount to at least three hundred millions per annum.

The burthen of taxation, which was at first patiently and even cheerfully borne by the people, begins to press more and more hardly upon them, because it exacts too large a percentage of their earnings and incomes, and is unjust and unequal in its operation: and the exemption from taxation of wealth invested by individuals and corporations in Government bonds, as it makes the burthen of taxation heavier on those less able to pay, increases the discontent.

Financial embarrassments begin seriously to threaten the Government, which Congress seems to be utterly incapable to avert. The reduction of the debt has ceased. The last report shows an increase of debt of ten millions; and it is certain that there has been no reduction since the 1st of January.

While additional revenue was needed to prevent an increase of the debt, taxes on manufactures, producing sixty millions per annum, were repealed, in order to secure the support of the manufacturing interest for the Radical candidate for the President. It was simply a huge bribe to purchase votes.

The reserve of coin in the Treasury has begun to decline. It has exceeded one hundred millions nett: it is now but seventy millions in excess of the outstanding gold certificates; and this will soon be reduced by the payment of eight millions of Mexican war debt, thirty millions of interest, and seven millions of purchase money for Alaska: so that there will probably not be fifty millions of coin in the Treasury on the 4th of July next, over and above the amount deposited there by private owners and balanced by gold certificates of deposite; and the debt will certainly be larger four months hence than it is now.

We take these figures and statements from the New York Tribune; and the source from which they come gives assurance that they are not exaggerated. It is evident that there is not the least likelihood of any diminution of the burthen of taxation which presses so heavily on the farmer, the merchant and the mechanic, or of the public debt.

The currency in circulation is in amount about seven hundred millions, of which some three hundred millions are National Bank paper. This is represented, founded upon and secured by about three hundred and fifty million Dollars in Government bonds, deposited by the Banks, and on which the Government pays these Banks interest at six per cent. per annum in gold, the amount so paid being about twenty-one million dollars per annum, equivalent to nearly or quite thirty millions in currency, at present rates.

The banks deposit their three hundred and fifty millions in bonds, and receive in return permission to issue three hundred and fifteen million dollars of their own notes, for the payment of which the deposited bonds are the only security. These notes are loaned to persons who become borrowers on interest. The banks thus make a large profit on their own promises to pay, besides the interest on the bonds. With $110,000, a National Bank purchases $100,000 in bonds, and receives in exchange for these some $90,000 in notes to be issued by itself. On the bonds it receives annually $6000 in gold or its equivalent in specie, as interest; and loans the notes at eight per cent. or more, besides; thus really really receiving double interest on the currency at first invested.

This interest is paid by the people, the working and producing classes. Why should not the National currency be retired, and greenbacks substituted for them? This would retire the bonds on which the paper is issued, and stop the payment of thirty millions of interest per annum in currency, an amount larger than the whole expenses of the Government, under the administration of John Quincy Adams.

Under the present system, the National Bank bondholder receives from the Government nearly nine per cent. interest in currency on his bonds, loans the paper represented by it at eight per cent. more, or employs outside agents to loan it on mortgage of real estate at from three to five per cent. a month, and is relieved from about three per cent. tax on his bonds. His aggregate profits are thus about twenty per cent. per annum.

The load of taxation on the people is enormous enough, without this in favour of the stockholders of the National Banks. Other Governments have their income tax; but none imposes a burthen at all comparable with our five per cent. It is excessive and unconscionable and, like the whiskey tax, does much to defeat itself. To tax a salary, or a professional income, barely sufficient for a man's support, at such a rate, when he expends every dollar as soon as he receives it, and may perhaps at the end of each year be in debt, is little less than cruelty. By our law, the income of a mechanic, an editor, a lawyer or a physician, requiring in each skill and labor, which ill-health or other causes may at any moment suspend or terminate, is taxed at the same rate as the income of a capitalist, with means invested beyond the reach of any probable accident. If he is sick and earns nothing half the year, expending in that time all he has earned during the other half, his income is taxed all the same; and a thousand dollars is the exemption for all men alike, no matter what may be the expenses of living.

The evil day may be postponed for a time; but the sure result of the present condition of things must be a financial convulsion, and probably repudiation.

We take the following more precise statement from the St. Louis Republican:

The statement made by Secretary McCulloch of the public debt of the United States on the first day of June, 1868, shows the total debt to be $2,643,753,565. At the same time there was in the Treasury $90 228,559 in coin, and $43 279.120. Total in the Treasury of $133,507,679. Deducting this from the debt given above, shows an absolute debt of $2,510,245 886. For all practical purposes, however, the larger sum, $2,643,753,565 is the real debt. The amount in the Treasury does not go at all to diminishing the indebtedness. The large sum of thirty-two millions of dollars in gold must be taken from the Treasury to pay interest on the five twenty bonds during the present month. Then there are large requisitions from the War Department, which it was contemplated would be made in May, which were deferred till this month, that must come out of the amount in the Treasury.

It appears that, instead of the enormous debt pressing upon the country being in process of diminution, it is increasing. The total debt, less cash in the Treasury at the close of April, was $2,500 528 827. At the close of May it was $2 510,245,886, showing an increase in one month of $9,717,059. Or if we take the actual debt, irrespective of cash in the Treasury, it was $2 639,612,622 at the end of April, and $2 643 753 568 at the end of May, showing an actual increase of $4,140,944 in one month.

Of the crushing debt resting upon the people, to meet which the large sum of one hundred and forty-nine millions of dollars must be paid annually by the people to meet the interest, $1,494 755,600 is in five-twenty bonds. In addition to this large sum, there are two other classes of six per cent., which, with the navy pension fund, bring up the total debt bearing coin interest to the sum of $2,020,828,841, upon which about $120,249,670 is payable annually in hard gold. This the people are heavily taxed to pay.

The total debt bearing currency interest is $203,117,450. The amount of debt bearing no interest is $408,973,981, of which $356,144,212 is greenbacks, and $32,531,589 fractional currency. The gold certificates of deposit are a little over $20,000,000, making the total given above of $408 973,981.

The question presents itself. What are our Radical rulers doing to relieve the people of the heavy burdens pressing upon them? Nothing—absolutely nothing. They are in no manner diminishing the debt? Everything is in their own hands. No one outside of the Radical party can be held responsible for the condition of financial affairs, for the reins of Government are in their hands, and all power is in their hands. But instead of their being a diminution of debt it is increasing—and that from the very beginning of the Presidential campaign, when they are appealing to the people to give them a new lease of power.

Reasons for Building the Railroad.

We have repeatedly noticed the efforts of Neal's State Gazette, of Dyersburg, to convince the people of Dyer county that it is their interest and their duty to subscribe liberally for the construction of a Mississippi River Railroad through the county. We make the following extract from a recent article, which we think should be considered conclusive by all good citizens to whom it is addressed:

Dyer county has real estate (on the tax book) to the amount of $4,000,000. You are asked to vote a tax of $150,000 to be paid in three annual payments, which will only be a tax on your property of 1½ cents on the $1 per annum, for three years. The best investment you ever made in your life! For it is a very moderate estimate that for a distance of five miles on either side of the railroad through the entire county in a much greater proportion) the value of land would be increased $5 per acre. Surely no landholder would take less than that advance on the present value of his land. Two hundred and five miles in length by ten in breadth would make 160,000 acres, and an increase of $5 per acre on this would amount to $800,000—nearly six times the cost of the road through the county on this item alone. Why, the saving in time and expense of travel and transportation; the increase in the price you would get for all your products; the ability to send to market at any time of things you could produce, but do not want of a market; the enhanced value of every species of property; the effect on the people of the county themselves in stimulating them to industry and enterprise, would pay you a hundred times over for your 1½ per cent. tax!

REMOVAL OF MEADE.

Gen. Meade arrived here to-day. Grant being absent at West Point, Meade has gone to Philadelphia on a brief leave of absence. A rumor is current that the President will order Gen. Meade to remain in Philadelphia in charge of that Military Division, and will assign Gen. Rousseau to the Third Military District.

The above paragraph, which we clip from the Washington correspondence of the New York Tribune, conveys intelligence which, if true, will send a thrill of joy through every patriotic heart in the States of Georgia, Alabama and Florida.

There is so much of hope, of gratification and of encouragement for the people of the Third Military District (so-called) involved in the removal of Gen. Meade, that we are afraid to indulge in too sanguine expectations from the action of the President in this regard. That Mr. Johnson committed a great blunder in sending Gen. Meade here as the successor of Gen. Pope, has been long since quite apparent. That he should seize the earliest fitting occasion to remove him is the unanimous opinion of Conservatives everywhere. The unmitigated tyranny of Gen. Meade, in his recent dealings with the Greene county (Ala.) prisoners, and still more recently his arrest and incarceration in loathsome dungeons of the citizens of Columbus, furnish conclusive reasons for his immediate removal.

Mr. Johnson should be also warned by Gen. Meade's conduct in regard to the recent elections in this State, that he is not a fit or proper person to be intrusted with the control and management of the approaching Presidential election. If Gen. Meade is continued in command of this District, there will be no necessity for going through with the forms of an election here. A great deal of trouble, and labor, and strife, and crime, and corruption can be saved by permitting Gen. Meade to select the electors for Grant, or cast the nine votes of the State himself for his friend and chieftain.

We have again and again urged the removal of Gen. Meade, and we hope that the Tribune is not mistaken in the statement that at last the President is about to act.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel, 16th.

An Ohio Paper on Chase.

The Columbus Crisis pronounces the nomination of Chase at New York, "simply preposterous;" says "he has belonged to all parties and betrayed all for his own benefit," and further caustically remarks:

Aside from all other political iniquities of which he cannot purge himself, he is the author of our present diabolical financial system, which establishes the meanest kind of an aristocracy, and literally reduces the masses of the people to abject servitude.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—The report of Forney's bankruptcy grew out of a remark by the Boston Post that his liabilities were great.

—Wm. H. Meek died on the 31st ult., near Aberdeen, Miss., a victim of the atrocities of Fort Delaware, from which he has been wasting away since the close of his imprisonment there.

—The Eutaw (Ala.) Whig and Observer has information that the wheat crop in portions of Greene county is cut short fully one half by rust.

—An election at Mound City, Ill., Friday, resulted in the triumph of the entire Democratic ticket; a gain of about one hundred.

—Thurlow Weed remarks: "We do not say that Mr. Greeley was paid like a common lobby man, but we do know that Dean Richmond—'peace to his ashes'—has often said in our presence that 'Greeley was a damned expensive cuss.'"

—The North Alabamian has been purchased by the proprietors of the Tuscumbia Times, who will blend the two papers. We wish them the greatest prosperity. They say in their last issue: "We shall continue to advocate the political supremacy of the white over the black race."

—The Daily Picayune is the title of a paper, just started by an association of journeymen printers at Montgomery, Ala. We have received several numbers, which display both ability and industry. We hope it may prove successful, and it will, if the proprietors stick together and show that co-operative labor is a practicable thing.

—The Newnan (Ala.) Herald says a number of the citizens of that town sowed their small lots in wheat last fall. They have been harvested and thrashed. The Herald says the yield will average twenty five bushels per acre. Mrs. Dent, on about three acres, raised seventy-five and a half bushels of good clean wheat. Other crops on smaller lots ranged from twenty to forty bushels.

—Complaints of the drouth come to us from almost every direction. This dry, hot weather is the very thing for harvesting, but growing crops want rain.

—Joseph T. Bethel, Daguerrean Artist, died at Barnsville, Ga., on the 9th inst., in the 23d year of his age.

—It is remarkable that the foundation of the property which Mr. Thomas Brown, lately murdered in Hampton Falls, New Hampshire, from his father, Mr. Jacob Brown, was a pair of steers given to him when he was sixteen years old, and which he sold for $100, putting the same at interest and keeping it there until, at the time of his death, 1859, it had reached the sum of $6000. Mr. Thos. Brown was murdered to obtain the money which he received for a yoke of oxen which he sold just previous to the tragedy.

—Secretary McCulloch estimates the receipts from the Internal Revenue, for the present fiscal year, at $208,000,000. Commissioner Rollins estimated it at [illegible] will [illegible],000,000, [illegible] revenue [illegible] the [illegible] ment [illegible] ureu. ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

For President of the United States,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

[Subject only to the decision of the National Democratic Conservative Convention.]

PLATFORM OF THE TENNESSEE DEMOCRACY.

1st. The Conservative men of Tennessee, putting aside all questions decided by the war, accept the title of 'Democrats,' and formally unite themselves with the Democratic party as it now exists.

2d. The question of the right of a State to secede from the Union has been decided by arms, and that decision should be accepted as final and conclusive.

3d. Nevertheless, while the Constitution makes the Federal Government supreme, it is so only with well defined limitations and restrictions, leaving the States large rights and powers over their domestic concerns, and making them coequal in respect of such rights; and these rights have not been impared by the result of the war, or the powers of the General Government aggrandized by it, to the endangerment of public liberty.

5th. The investiture of negroes with the right of suffrage, by the Congress of the United States, and the disfranchisement of white men, by the same authority, is a gross usurpation of power, and a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war of races: the white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State governments; and any measure intended to deprive them of it, or to divide or impair it, greatly endangers the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

6th. The faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the national debt, according to the terms of the laws under which the bonds were issued, and not otherwise. The time of payment of the bonds ought not to be extended; the principal of the five-twenty bonds ought to be paid in currency, and the money granted to the National banks to be withdrawn.

7th. The Government bonds should be taxed in the hands of the bondholders, equally with other property.

8th. The doctrines and practices of the Radical party, which endeavors, by encroaching upon the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government, to absorb in the Legislative Department all powers, tend to the destruction of the Republican system of Government and the civil liberties of the people.

9th. Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administration of our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies; the preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of peace at home and safety abroad; a jealous care of the rights of election by the people and the supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

MORE OF THE KU-KLUXES.

There is a "General" John B. Rodgers who is exceedingly anxious to make it appear that his son John—maybe a lineal descendant of him of Smithfield memory and renown—met with a cowardly assault, and received a painful wound in the knee, from four black-faced paper-hatted Ku-Kluxes in Van Buren county, Tennessee. In place of the aforesaid "son," the father repeating the dose previously seasoned and delivered to the public (not with quinine this time) by the Press and Times. The Enterprise of the 30th ult. characterizes the puny effort to revive the raid against Ku-Kluxism as "a weak invention," for buncombe, which it doubtless was, although the Rodgers pere repeats it with a grain or two of additional piquancy. To make the horrible more apparent, John says "their faces were blacked, with newspapers pinned over their hats, and their shirts put on over their clothes." In addition to this, the devoted and anxious parent asserts that the account of the affair, as published by the Press and Times of the 24th of May was "very nearly correct." Mark that. The Radical organ should be proud of such endorsement.

"Shoulders his crutch and tells how fields were won,"

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

Hon. James Guthrie has resigned the Presidency of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, and Russell Houston, Esq., formerly of Nashville, Vice President, succeeds him. The Journal says the resignation of Mr. Guthrie was rendered inevitable by his ill health. Of his successor, the Journal remarks:

Mr. Houston, as Vice President of the company, has displayed managerial abilities of the very highest order. He has the unqualified indorsement of the Directory, and the full confidence of the stockholders and the people generally. Although but comparatively a short time resident in Kentucky, Mr. Houston is well and favorably known. His almost life-long connection (in Tennessee) with the road, of whose affairs he now assumes control, has rendered him signally fit for the place. It seems almost preposterous to suppose that any one could be found competent to perform the difficult duties of this high office with anything like the satisfaction afforded by Mr. Houston's predecessor. Yet Mr. Houston's very association with Mr. Guthrie has qualified him for the Presidency, and we predict that his administration will be enlightened, progressive, and in every way commensurate with the magnitude and ambition of the corpotation of which he is the head.

THE article which we published yesterday relative to a pretended conversation between a correspondent of the New York Herald and Mr. Pendleton, should have been credited to the Nashville Banner. The thing looked very bogus to us. In regard to it, a New York correspondent of the Louisville Democrat writes:

There is good reason here for believing and saying that the whole thing has been cooked up to order, by certain persons here, who have chartered the Herald to promote certain views of their own. The "important conversation," no doubt, will surprise Mr. Pendleton quite as much as anybody else. The Democracy must be on their guard against the many fabrications of this mischievous character, with which the journals are now teeming.

—Daniel S. Walbridge, ex-member of Congress, died at Kalamazoo, Mich., on the 17th inst., at the age of sixty-two.

—In the case of Tim Heenan, brother of John C., at Philadelphia., the Coroner's Jury returned a verdict that he came to his death at the hands of G. Eaton.

—No clue had been obtained, up to the 17th, to the murder of Newton Sloan, at Philadelphia.

Letter from Senator Trumbull.

The following was addressed to the Hon. G. Koerner, of Illinois:

WASHINGTON, May 20, 1868.

Gov. G. Koerner:

My Dear Sir: Your telegram, and also your letters of the 17th were duly received. I thank you for the letter and the kind spirit in which it is written. No words can tell you how pained I am to be compelled to differ from you and other life-long friends. This will be my first letter in reply to numerous ones received on the subject of impeachment. At first, nearly all my letters were in condemnation, but within the last few days, perhaps, half are in approval of my course. In the midst of the storm of abuse and misrepresentation poured forth by rash, reckless, and in many instances, unprincipled politicians, I thought it idle to attempt to reason with them. I feel sure I am right, and when the passion of the hour subsides, that I shall be able to satisfy all reasonable and fair-minden men that it was my duty to decide according to my convictions, whether they agreed with my political friends or not. I was just as well aware before voting as now, that Andrew Johnson was odious to the country, and that probably sixety-nine hundredths of the Republicans desired his removal; but to have convicted him of high crimes and misdemeanors because the party demanded it, when in my opinion he was not shown to be guilty of them, would have been monstrous. If the prosecutors have the right to dictate the verdict and judgment, the trial is a farce. No President who disagrees with Congress will hereafter be permitted to remain in office, if such a principle is to obtain—or to state the case more accurately, a majority of the House of Representatives, when two-thirds of the Senate agree with them politically, may at any time remove a President. That the Republican party has a right to demand the conviction of the President is horrible, and the sense of justice of the nation will revolt at such an idea when the passion of the hour subsides; and yet I have received numerous letters and telegrams telling me that the Republican party demands the removal of the President. I do not believe it, unless the tribunal appointed by the Constitution to try him believe him guilty of some crime or misdemeanor with which he stands charged. I think I am right in coming to the conclusion that no crime or misdemeanor justifying impeachment was made out in the case; but if mistaken in this, I must, of course, take the consequence of my error of judgment, but to charge it as a betrayal of the party is cruelly unjust. What is the administration of justice worth when decisions are to be made, not according to law and justice, but at the dictation of a political party, or even of the whole people? In newly settled countries mobs and parties of regulation sometimes take the administration of justice into their own hands, but who ever heard of mobs even requiring courts to execute their decrees? The stories about corruption or improper motives influencing any Republican to vote against conviction are, of course, false. All the pressure, and it was very great—more than you know of—was on the other side, as an investigation, if one is ever had, will show. But for outside pressure I think no such vote as thirty-five could have been obtained for conviction on the eleventh article. I inclose a copy of my opinion.

Yours truly, LYMAN TRUMBULL.

TENNESSEE.

—A portion of the bridge over Richland Creek, five and a half miles from Nashville, on the N. & N. W. Railroad, has been burned, which prevented sending out a train on the 15th, as contemplated.

Abraham Murdock has been re-elected President of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. But few changes were made in the old Board at the recent election. In relation to the late "strike," the Trenton Gazette of the 13th, says: "It was a high-handed game of lawlessness on the part of those strikers to stop trains conveying passengers and mails, and we hope there is some means of teaching them that they cannot with impunity discommode and unjustly tax by detention, thousands of innocent persons on account of their private grievances. Theirs are like all other debts, and their only legal remedy is in the courts. If the road does not pay them promptly, they have the unquestionable right to quit, but they should not compel others to do so who are willing to run the trains. These mobs are becoming too bold and defiant. We hope and believe, however, that the trains will speedily resume their regular trips. We understand the refractory are being paid off and discharged." We have since understood that the difficulty has been adjusted.

—The Lebanon Register says: "We are informed that an election is ordered for the 18th of July, in Sumner county, to vote a subscription for the building of the Lebanon and Gallatin Railroad, and that it is certain to be carried."

—The Columbia Herald says: "Last Friday night a large party in disguise went to the residence of one John Edgin, who lives eight or nine miles east of Columbia, took him out into the woods and struck him nine hundred lashes with hickory switches. Of course his punishment was very severe. The ostensible reason that is supposed to have called forth the ire of these strange creatures is that Edgin some time ago whipped his two grown daughters; and a nameless something, only hinted at, is imputed to him. The truth of the matter, however, will never be fully known. It is said by some that Edgin had sufficient cause for whipping his daughters."

—The Banner says: "Mr. Edward Hughes, telegraph operator at the Nashville and Chattanooga Depot, is very ill with dropsy of the stomach, caused, it is said, from excessive use of ice water. He is not expected to live."

—A convict named Narry, attempted to escape from the penitentiary on the 15th by taking off his coat and walking through the gate. He did not succeed. Five years of his sentence for murder in the second degree had expired.

—Two companies of Fenians are being organized at Nashville.

—On Sunday last, in Robertson county, a desperado named Thomas Darruck shot and it is feared fatally wounded J. C. Moss, Esq., a magistrate, who had bound him over to the Criminal Court on a charge preferred by a negro woman.

—Neal's State Gazette says: "If you will plant a few Jamestown weeds in your tobacco fields, and well sweeten with good sugar one pint of water and then put one ounce of cobalt into the water, and then drop four drops of this mixture into the bloom of the Jamestown weed, you can kill every tobacco fly on your place ere they hatch worms.

MR. ALEXANDER, in a memoir prefixed to a recently published volume of essays by the late Alexander Smith, tells two or three Scotch anecdotes of Hugh Macdonald, a close friend of the poet Macdonald, with the sweetest affection for Smith as a man, combined a resolute contempt for him as a poet, to which he never hesitated to give the very broadest Doric expression: "I like ye weel, Sandy," he would say, "an' that ye weel ken; but as for yer poetry, as ye ca' it! sae help me God, I mak' but little o't. It may be poetry; I'm no sayin' it is na: the creetics say it's poetry, an' nae doot they suld ken; but it's no my kind o' poetry. Jist a blather o' braw words, to my minds, an' bit whirly-wbas they ca' eemages. Damme, if I can mak' either head or tail o't."

THE Journeymen bricklayers of Chicago, in striking for five dollars per day, open their resolutions as follows: "Whereas, in the course of human events, it becomes our imperative duty, as journeymen bricklayers of the city of Chicago, to act upon the charitable principle of self-preservation, as the first law of nature; therefore," etc.

Two peculiarities distinguish the Boston girl, which can hardly fail to be noticed by the observant stranger; of the young ladies between the ages of fifteen and thirty, whom he meets on Washington street in the afternoon, two-fifths wear glasses, and three-fifths carry, pressed against their bosoms, books bound in brown paper.

The great race between Hamill and Coulter commenced about 3 p.m. They started from the upper stake-boat, and Hamill led Coulter slightly at the start, but after proceeding down half a mile, from some reason at present unknown, their boats collided and both upset. Coulter righted his boat and proceeded around the course. Hamill was picked up by a boat in the vicinity and brought back to the starting point. The referees will have to decide whether the fouling was done purposely or not.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, June 18.—The heaviest thunderstorm ever known visited this city and vicinity last night. The rain fell in torrents from midnight till daylight, deluging the streets, filling the cellars and damaging the sewers. A number of buildings were struck by lightning. The damages are supposed to be considerable in the washing away of fences and destruction of crops. The railroads suffered to some extent, but at noon to-day the trains on the Ohio and Mississippi, Hamilton and Dayton, Atlantic and Great Western, Little Miami, and Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette Railroads were running regularly. Dispatches from Urbana, Springfield, Lima, Fort Wayne, Indianapolis and Dayton represent the storm as severe, interrupting communication and damaging the crops.

LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, June 18.—The strike on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad having ended, the trains are again running the entire length of the road.

At Capital Hill, in Marshall county, on Monday, a number of white men, in disguise, took a negro man from his house, and while in the act of whipping him, were fired on by a lot of negroes. The following day about forty negroes banded together, armed, and made hostile demonstrations towards the whites. A writ was issued and a posse sent out, when a fight took place, but without serious results, the negroes retreating towards Murfreesboro, where they arrived to-day demanding food, which was promised them if they would disarm. This was declined, and they left threatening to stop the afternoon train and go to Nashville. This, however, they did not do.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Pomeroy, from the Committee on Postoffices, reported favorably on the bill authorizing the establishment of a line of American mail and passenger steamships between New York and one or more European ports.

Wilson, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported with an amendment, the bill to establish rules and articles for the government of the army of the United States.

Pomeroy introduced a bill to complete the extension of the railroad from Washington to Mobile and other points in the South, and creating it a post route from Washington to Mobile and New Orleans. Referred to the Pacific Railroad Committee.

Trumbull called up the bill supplementary to the act to allow the United States to prosecute Appeals and Writs of Error without giving security, which passed.

Trumbull also called up the bill relative to the Supreme Court of the United States. It devolves upon the senior Associate Justice the office of the Chief Justice, in case of the inability of the latter, until such inability be removed. The bill passed.

Chandler, chairman of the Committee on Commerce, called up the following bills, which were passed: The bill for the appointment of a supervising surgeon of the marine hospitals of the United States.

It authorizes the President to make the appointment, with a salary of $3000 per annum.

The bill to prevent and punish frauds in the revenue, and for other purposes, approved March 1, 1863, and several other bills of no general interest.

Chandler also called up the bill relating to the sale of vessels to belligerents, which was indefinitely postponed.

Chandler introduced a joint resolution providing that the act of February 9, 1867, shall not be construed to debar the payment of the claims of loyal citizens of loyal States for the loss of steamboats, vessels, or other property, taken or impressed in the States that seceded from the Union, provided that the claimants were loyal at the time the claims originated and continued loyal thereafter. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Committee on Revenue reported back the bill published, to provide for the further issue of the temporary loan certificates for the purpose of redeeming and retiring the remainder of the outstanding compound interest notes, with a verbal amendment.

Stewart made a report from the Committee on Conference on the bill for the relief of the political disabilities, etc. The Committee recommend the striking out of the names of George A. Houston, of Alabama, and George W. Jones, of Tennessee.

HOUSE.

The joint resolution giving increased compensation to the employees of the Government in Washington was reconsidered and tabled by 68 against 64.

Clarke, of Kansas, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, made a report on the subject of the treaty recently made with the Great and Little Osage tribes, for the cessation to the Leavenworth, Lawrence and Galveston Railroad of 8,000,000 acres of land in Southern Kansas, at about 19 cents an acre. The report after reciting the facts, concludes: "That the treaty is in violation of the rights of the settlers, and justice to the Indians." And recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, As the sense of the House of Representatives, that the treaty concluded on the 27th of May, 1868, with the Great and Little Osage Indians was, both, in its express terms and stipulations, and in the means employed to procure their acceptation by the Indians, an infringement on their rights, and that in transferring to a single Railroad Company 8,000,000,000 acres of land, it not only disregards the rights and interests of other Railroad corporations in the State of Kansas, and builds up a frightful land monopoly in defiance of the just rights of the settlers and of the people of the United States, but it assumes the authority repeatedly denied by this House, to dispose of their lands by treaty or otherwise than by the absolute cessation to the United States, and for purposes for which Congress alone is competent to provide.

Resolved, Also, as the sense of the House, that the objects, terms, conditions and stipulations of the aforesaid treaty are not within the treaty making power, nor are they authorized either by the Constitution or laws of the United States, and therefore this House does solemnly condemn the same, as it does also earnestly express the hope and expectation that the Senate will not ratify the said pretended treaty.

The resolutions were agreed to without a division.

Cook, from the Committee on Elections, made a report in the contested case of Hogan against Pile, of Missouri, in which Pile, the sitting member, was declared to be duly elected.

Chandler presented a minority report which was ordered to be printed for future action.

Cook gave notice that he would, on Saturday, call up the Kentucky contested case of McKee against Young, as he understood that the tax bill could be reported on Monday, and would exclude all other business until it was disposed of.

The House then proceeded, at 2:30 p. m., to the consideration of the business of the morning hour, which was the call of the Judiciary Committee for reports.

On motion of Boutwell, the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the bill relative to one of the Justices of the Supreme Court, (Justice Field.)

Boutwell reported back with an amendment to the Senate bill for changing the time of holding the District Circuit Courts of the United States in Tennessee. The amendment was agreed to, and the bill passed.

Boutwell also reported a bill to provide for appeals from the Court of Claims, modifying and essentially limiting the jurisdiction of that Court.

Washburne, of Illinois, offered as an amendment, an additional section directing the Clerk of the Court of Claims to transmit to Congress, at the commencement of each December session, a full and complete list of all the judgments rendered by the Court during the previous year, stating the amount and the parties in whose favor they were rendered, together with a brief synopsis of the claims. The amendment was agreed to, and the bill passed. Yeas, 88; Nays, 27.

Thomas reported a bill relieving carrying companies from liabilities for losses caused by fires during the late rebellion, or by the forces of the United States. He explained the bill, and had letters now showing the necessity for the proposed legislation, and said that it was intended to apply more particularly to express companies in the Southern States, in action against them.

Tremble, of Kentucey, inquired whether the bill did not virtually oust the State courts of jurisdiction in all cases where a single corporation or express companies, that is such as are residents of another State.

Thomas replied that undoubtedly it did. After further discussion, the bill passed by 80 to 42, and the House adjourned.

AMERICAN cotton has now some formidable competitors, with the strength of which we can only become acquainted through the exhibits of the great market for the staple. A late Liverpool circular, under date of 15th May last, gives the sales at that port for the week ending the day previous at 47,000 bales, of which nearly 30,000 were American, the balance Egyptian, Brazilian and East Indian. The stock on hand was 587,500 bales, of which 359,000 were American—both showing a heavy preponderance in favor of the American article. But a third exhibit is not so flattering; for the amount at sea sums up 90,000 American and 810,000 East Indian. The quotations of the week mentioned show that the Brazilian article brought a range of prices id above the American.

ONE cold day last week a belle stopped and bought a paper of a ragged little newsboy—"Poor fellow!" said she, "ain't you very cold?" "I was ma'am before you smiled," was the reply. That was the perfection of flattery.

—The defalcation of the Hide and Leather National Bank, Boston, is ascertained to be $576,000.

Rapid Decline of the Negro Race in the South.

From the Macon (Ga.) Journal and Messenger.]

The negro population of Georgia is traveling with giant strides towards total extinction. So rapid is the decline, even those living among it can see the decrease very plainly. At the close of the war all restraints imposed upon servants by virtuous masters were withdrawn, and the freedmen and the freedwomen felt at liberty to do as they pleased. This quickly resulted—it was astonishing how quick—in almost universal lewdness. It is a world-wide fact that no race ever yet increased and flourished which did not rigidly inculcate and enforce, by the power of public opinion, the strictest virtue. The negro, as a race, cares nothing for this, and only practised in the days of bondage habits of morality because he was forbidden indulgence in vice.

No one now sees one negro infant to twenty ten years ago. Instead of the especial emissaries sent among them by Northern fanatical associations teaching them habits of virtue, they join with them in habits of lewdness, and, by their example, lead many of them on the road to ruin. The white people of the South have, in a measure, lost control of this population. Their former functions have been assumed by strolling, irresponsible men and women who had bad reputations at home, and who find among this simple-minded people a delicious field to practice their operations. They are rapidly destroying the race by pernicious precept and example.

A few years only will have elapsed before they will not be felt at the polls. Improvident and irregular in their habits, gluttonous in their diet, devouring improper food, neglected in sickness; mortality is prevailing among all ages to a far greater extent than any one dreams of. There are planters who used to own five hundred who do not know of the existence of one hundred of the number. Had they not been freed, that family would to-day number at least seven hundred. The idea that they either live better or have more freedom now than they used to is simply ridiculous. They neither get the same amount to eat, drink or wear.

To one born and reared among them, and who saw them in better days—days when they were a thousand times more happy than they are now—the dissolving view of this black phantom is curiously interesting and equally as instructive. It shows how heaven sometimes creates fanatical zeal and philanthropy for a people for the purpose of destroying them. Assuming the form of friendship, the work of demolition is made the more easy and certain; and the poor victim only wakes up in eternity to a full realization of the means, which, commencing with his moral, was quickly followed by his bodily death. We sit as a looker, watching a panorama which has elicited the attention of the world, and of which the world has grown weary, roll away, and rapidly pass from the stage. To many it is a mournful sight, to others it is curious; while the philosopher sees in it effect following cause, and is neither shocked nor astonished, but sees only the solution of a problem whose every figure he has studied and understands.

Druggists of Memphis and Surrounding country,

Assuring you that we CAN and WILL make it to your interest to co-operate with us in this new enterprise, by assisting us to build up and sustain an EXCLUSIVE WHOLESALE DRUG HOUSE, such as never has existed heretofore in this city. With a view to which, we engaged in this enterprise some months since, but owing to the dull season, and general stagnation of business, with an almost entire suspension of currency, we felt compelled to continue the retail as well as wholesale, the same as other drug houses of the city, until up to the present, but have now entirely dropped the retail and prescription business to that of an EXCLUSIVE WHOLESALE AND JOBBING TRADE, with a determination, that with the strictest attention to the wants of our customers, the closest applicat on and prompt itude in filling orders, and at the very smallest margin of profit above original cost, in unbroken packages from manufacturers, importers and first hand dealers, we will surm unt every obstacle that may be thrown in the way of making this new enterprise in Memphis a SUCCESS.

REMOVAL.—The office of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company has been removed to 325 Main street, over Messrs. Joyner, Lemon & Gales.

FRESH VEGETABLES.—The restaurant windows and ice boxes are now all well supplied with new tomatoes, cucumbers and egg-plants.

AUCTION.—At Strauss & Blum's, 213 Main street, this day at 10 o'clock a.m. and 7 p.m., will be sold a large lot of Dry Goods, of every description, and sixty silk sacks, the latter on consignment.

PASCHALL HOUSE DRAWING.—The attention of the public is called to the fact that on July the first the drawing will take place of the Paschall House Association, and that tickets can be obtained of W. H. Passmore & Co., No. 260 Second street.

DR. NORRIS, Oculist, 59 Madison street, cures all kinds of Sore Eyes. Granulated Lids, in its worst form, cured in three weeks (warranted). Crossed-Eyes straightened. Dr. Norris has made some of the most remarkable cures ever made in the United States.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Yesterday noon as a young clerk named Kohn, in the house of Rice, Stix & Co., was moving a box off the fall, in the third story, he stumbled and fell through the hatchway, falling a distance of about thirty-five feet to the first story, injuring himself severely if not fatally.

THE driven well in the park progresses finely. Yesterday afternoon the tube had been sunk fifty-five feet, and the water was within ten feet of the surface. By a few drops brought up, while we were standing by, and we tested, we are convinced that by noon to day a well of clear, cold water will be flowing in the park.

WE would advise our readers to examine the Improved Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine before purchasing elsewhere. Experience teaches us they have no equal. Room, 256 Second street.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Last night about 9 o'clock, as Mr. A. S. Lonergan, the book-keeper of the APPEAL counting room, was returning home, out Thornton avenue, (a little street leading from Market to Alabama street,) he was knocked senseless by a slungshot or some such weapon, and on recovering consciousness, he discovered that he had been robbed of what money he had on his person and the office safe keys. The wound, though severe, is not thought to be dangerous. There is no clue to the daring highwayman, and up to writing, (midnight) no arrest has been made.

EMMONS & SON received yesterday the New York Ledger, Chimney Corner, Weekly and Monthly, Banner of Light, Boston Pilot, the Galaxy for July, the Emerald, Nick-Nax for July, Ladies' Friend, Godey, Harper's Magazine, all for July, London Society for June, Kelley's Weekly, New York, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Louisville dailies renewed every day.

A MOST DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.—The Concordia Gardens were last evening the scene of one of the most delightful evening entertainments that we have visited in many a long year—not, indeed, since we left the "land of the vine, blue-eyed Germany." The occasion was the celebration of the first anniversary of the "Concordia Gesangverein," with a grand banquet and ball. An address was made by Jos. A. Gronauer, Esq., President of the society, and during the banquet the regular toasts were responded to by the various members. The whole affair was a most brilliant entertainment, "a feast of reason and a flow of soul," interspersed with delightful music and charming promenade.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC EXHIBITION. The Memphis Club Room was filled last night by a beautiful and refined audience, to witness the exhibition of the pupils of the Misses Bowers' and Professor Seybert's school. The exercises were varied, and were most pleasingly rendered. The parents present must have been more than satisfied with the grace and precision that marked the performances. The Masters and Misses showed wonderful self-possession, and reflected the highest credit upon their careful instructors. We regretted exceedingly that other duties did not permit us to enjoy the whole of the performances, but those we did have the pleasure of witnessing assured us of the excellence of the school whose pupils displayed so much judgment and such careful training.

"HEAD OF THE ARMY."—L. D. Gleason, who so long and ably conducted that symbaritic establishment, "Sam's House," has taken the splendid apartments in the basement of the Knickerbocker Block, and will open a first-class establishment there on Saturday (to-morrow), on which occasion a splendid layout will be set for his friends and the public. The new saloon will be known as the "Bank Exchange," and Gleason will preside in person at the bar. je19 2t

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—About half past seven o'clock in the evening, as private watchman Edmond Johnson, of the Mosby Block, was lighting the gas in the third story of that building, he heard some one kicking open a door in the second story. He sat down his lamp and went down stairs, and found the door of Jessie Brown's office broken open, but no person in the room. Satisfying himself of this fact, he kept on down stairs, and met Mr. Hawkey, a tenant, coming up, and asked him if he had seen any person going out, which question he answered negatively. There was no other chance of escape, except the balcony in the rear of the building, and down by the spout. He searched the house thoroughly, but could find no person in it. At writing this, the house is closely guarded, and if the burglars are concealed there they will be caught this morning.

POLICE ITEMS.

—Affairs continue dull in this line. The mackerels have quit stealing; the roughs are pretty much all in jail or dead; money is so scarce that, with whisky at fifteen cents a drink, few can afford to get tight; the darkies have gotten scared off from the J. P. Courts—and the millenium is fast approaching.

—John Swabeck was yesterday arrested for peddling without a license.

—There were only three arrests made in forty-eight hours up to eight o'clock last evening, at Causey street station.

—Anna Small, one of the parties in the above rencontre, after settling up with 'Squire Black, swore out a warrant against another female, for stealing a ring of hers. The case will be disposed of to-day.

—Henry Croll yesterday went on board the steamer Marble City, paid his passage, and sent his baggage aboard. The boat not being ready to leave, Mr. Croll came ashore, took a drink too much, was arrested and locked up, and many, when the city without him—leaving the boat left [illegible] senseless, moneyless and a ing him baggage ticket in his pocket. worthless passage A hard case.

—P. P. Higgins, for larruping one Wm. Diggs for stealing wood, was fined two dollars and costs by 'Squire Walton.

—Annie Small and Emeline Smith, two scrumptious African beauties, got tangled in each others wool, a night or two ago, and everlastingly made the fur fly. The result was that both of them were up before 'Squire Black, charged with breaking the peace of the State of Tennessee, and mutually charging each other with assault and battery. Some tall swearing was done by both sides, and the 'Squire, like the fox in the story of the monkey and the oyster, got the good of it all. He fined the bellicose maidens two dollars each and costs.

—An outrageous affair, if the story was detailed to us truly, was perpetrated on Union street on Wednesday night, by two negroes named John and Geo Floyd. About nine o'clock, as two women, one of whom was white, named respectively Mary Williamson and Fannie Chester, were going home from a day's work, with some washing, they were hailed by two men whom they then did not know, and who ordered them to stop. They become frightened and quickened their pace, when one of the parties who hailed them fired a pistol at them, and they halted. On coming nearer they discovered their pursuers to be two drunken negroes, who without any provocation again fired on them—the bullet from one of the weapons passing between the left arm and the body of Mary Williamson, barely grazing her, but doing no further harm than frightening her. On the approach of parties attracted by the shots the ruffians fled, but not before they had been recognised as the two brothers, John and George Floyd. Yesterday morning 'Squire Walton issued a warrant for their arrest, and they were found and brought before him, but not being ready, the examination of the case was postponed until Monday at 10 o'clock, and the accused held to bail in the sum of $2000. The above are the facts as we learned them from 'Squire Walton's Constable who made the arrest. John Floyd has been for several months a porter in the drug store of Messrs. Mansfield & Higbee, where we were told that he is a very quiet negro generally.

VARIETIES.—A star has set, but one of greater magnitude has arisen. The gloom occasioned by the departure of Miss De Vere has been more than dissipated by the effulgence of that bright particular star, Miss Minnie Grey, who is now the chief attraction at the Varieties, and nightly entrances her many friends and admirers. In the real Scotch "Strathspey," en costume, she is indeed without a rival, in point of ease, grace and rapidity of movement,—

"A foot more light, a step more true,
Ne'er from heath flower dashed the dew."

She sings the "auld ballads" with a melody of voice and perfection of intonation that does not often awake the echoes out of old Scotland;—

"Those silvery sounds, so soft, so dear,
The listener held his breath to hear."

Long may she reign, a perfect queen of song. The burnt cork corps of this popular resort still add greatly to its attractions, and the liberal and enterprising manager, Charley Broom, has secured the best artistic talent at great cost, and deserves a generous support.

STATE FEMALE COLLEGE.

Grand Concert Last Night.

Brilliant Attendance.

The Commencement concert of the State Female College came off on Wednesday evening and was largely attended, the commodious chapel of the college being filled to repletion, and large numbers being unable to obtain admission. To say that it was in every way a success, is but feeble praise, where so much musical talent and such thorough cultivation were displayed. Every variety of vocal and instrumental music was produced, from the simple and touching ballad to the most difficult operatic selections and instrumental and vocal duets, reflecting credit alike on teacher and pupils.

Owing to the lateness of the hour we are unable to present our readers with a full report, but will do so to-morrow.

A nolle pros. was entered in the case of the State vs. Hardwick and Nesbitt, negroes, and a new bill preferred before the Grand Jury, which was returned a true bill, and on motion quashed, and the defendants discharged. In the case of the State vs. Carter, Helms, Swears, Mo-Murray and Massey, negroes, assault with deadly weapon, a nolle pros. was entered as to all the defendants except Carter, who, with the consent of the State, pleaded guilty to an assault. The case of the State vs. A. Fagan, alias Higgins, indictment for offering to pass and transfer a forged paper writing on Harris, Cochran & Co., purporting to be a draft on said firm for $750, was commenced and transferred to the Jury last evening. The defendant, a Frenchman, made a statement to the Jury, asserting that he bought the draft on the boat, on the way from St. Louis to Memphis. He claimed to be of respectable family, and asked the Jury to discharge him. Col. Bullock and Mr. Walker Wood represented the State. Gen. Wallace and Mr. Horrigan conducted the defense. The Jury, after an absence of one hour, returned a verdict of "guilty," and fixed the period of imprisonment at three years in the penitentiary.

The cases set for trial to-day are: The State vs George Washington, larceny. Same vs Joseph Marris, larceny.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

Weather clear and warm. The river at this point is falling slowly. The Ohio is falling, and Cincinnati boats drawing over 5 feet are coming out with barges. The Mississippi is declining at St. Louis. The Arkansas has 3 feet to Fort Smith. White river is falling.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Business on the landing was dull yesterday, and few stragglers were to be seen. The Gleaner went out with a fair trip for the Arkansas, and the Marble City had a good passenger trip for St. Louis.

The Julia, Capt. Lockhart, with the well known Mr. Isaacs in the office, will pass up to-day at 1 p.m. for Cairo and St. Louis.

The fine steamer Darling, with Law Kates on the roof, backs out to-day for Cairo, Louisville and Cincinnati. Capt. Power, a popular officer, has charge of her desk.

The Liberty, Capt. Rice, will be found at the wharf this morning to receive freight for all points on White river, for which stream she leaves at 5 p.m. to-morrow. Harry and Sharp are her clerks.

The fine steamer Belle St. Louis is the regular Cairo and St. Louis packet for to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock. Ad Storm, her chief clerk, is well known in this community, and several families are awaiting to put themselves under his charge.

The Rubicon, Capt. Blake, will be in port to leave to-morrow evening for Vicksburg and the bends.

We learn from Capt. J. D. Adams that the steamer Fort Smith has been raised and is now at Little Rock undergoing repairs.

The Ozark will leave Cincinnati on the 24th for this port.

The Norman leaves for White and Black rivers on Saturday at noon. Dickenson is master.

The Star wharfboat is being overhauled and put in splendid order for the coming season's business. It is reported that it has been leased by Capt. Larry Harmstad to replace the City wharfboat.

A towboat with a tow of coal for this port will arrive in a day or two. The stock now on hand is less than usual at this season of the year.

Bertin, the Radical Wharfmaster of St. Louis, who was convicted of bigamy in that city and was asked to resign by the Radical Mayor, has written an impertinent reply to that functionary refusing to do any such thing.

The Newsboy has been sold to parties in Paducah for the sum of $5000.

The Evansville Journal says of the Ella Porter explosion:

"Col. Guthrie informs us that at first, in the investigation of the cause of the explosion of the Ella Porter, he found the sole blame to be with the engineer, who has paid the penalty with his life. New evidence was discovered on Saturday, however, which seems to implicate the Captain, who was seriously injured. Col. Guthrie left for Louisville on the Tarascon Saturday night, and will lay the testimony before the Local Board for their decision. It was discovered that the flue had been for sometime defective, having been previously injured from want of water, and was considerably "bagged." This was known to the engineer and Captain, but was unknown to the owners. It was the duty of the engineer and Captain to have had the defective flue repaired. The neglect cost one life, the other serious injuries, and liability in a civil suit to the friends of those killed and injured for damages."

STEAMER R. E. LEE, June 18.

River Editor Appeal:

As we will soon pass your beautiful city, I merely give you a few items in regard to our trip and river matters generally. We left New Orleans Monday at 6 p.m., with a splendid trip, including over 256 people, one-half of whom are ladies, 300 tons of freight, for various points, besides taking on at Red river 662 head of cattle. My attention has been repeatedly called to a poster or placard, put up by the steamer Richmond, in which they claim to have made the fastest time on record from Memphis to Fort Pillow. The time claimed by them is four hours and thirty-five minutes. Referring to the New Orleans Crescent, of May 14th in river column, I notice an article taken from the Louisville Courier, in which the Richmond claims to have made the run from Memphis to Fort Pillow as follows: From Memphis to Island 37 in three hours; to Randolph in three hours and thirty-eight minutes, and to Fort Pillow in four hours and forty-five minutes. I have no doubt but that a large portion of the traveling community believe this statement, because they do not know the precise distances between those points. The distance from Memphis to Island 37 is forty miles, and from Island 37 to Randolph twenty miles. Now, granting that the Richmond did run from Memphis to 37 in three hours, which is an ordinary run for the Lee. She claims to have made the run from Memphis to Randolph, which is twenty miles farther, in three hours and thirty-eight minutes. That is running twenty miles in thirty-eight minutes, equal to about thirty-two miles an hour, which any one of common judgment will know to be incredulous. If you will examine the card I send with this, of our running time, you will notice that we beat the Richmond's time to Randolph, and also to Fort Pillow by twenty-one minutes. I do not write this as a challenge, but simply to give facts, and to prevent the traveling public from being boxxed by would be fast boats. Nevertheless, if the low pressure Richmond, or any other low pressure steamer think that they have, or can make fast time let them beat sixteen hours and thirty-seven minutes from Memphis to Cairo, and we will present them with the horns that now grace our pilot house.

Respectfully, SULLIVAN.

The run of the Lee is as follows: Left Memphis June 15, 1867, at 8 minutes past 10 a.m., arrived at Cairo June 16th, 45 minutes past 2 a.m.

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, were, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the forty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the practiced and to the common cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 d&w1y

Indications point to large receipts of leaf tobacco at this point during the season, and it is more than likely that a good business will be done. Several of our tobacco houses have made such arrangements as will, we learn, secure a large portion of the crop grown along the Tennessee river and the railroad hence to Louisville. We have before us some samples of selected leaf, a consignment of several thousand pounds of which has been received by Messrs. Edmonds & Todd, of Front street. Other parties have received shipments, and the receipts for the season will be without doubt very much larger than at any time since the war.

Wheat is in demand both by millers and for shipment. There has been but very little received up to date, but engagements of good merchantable can be made for future delivery at $2 00 per bushel. We quote at $2 00 to 2 10 per bushel.
